

PRIVACY – La Boutique Relocation

Thank you for reading carefully our privacy policy that will describe what data we collect and what we do with it.

What and how data is collected?

We receive and collect your personal data (e.g. name, address, phone number) you share with us through the contact form, while visiting our website (e.g. IP address) or through your HR department or directly sent by you (e.g. passport, family details, personal situation, work contract, etc).

Why is this information collected?

La Boutique Relocation provides consultation, relocation and integration services, such as orientation, market analysis, housing, settling-in, school & education support, office search, etc. for businesses and individuals. The collected information through the contact form is used to get in touch with the client. The information received by a direct email from the client or employer's HR is used to assist the client and his/her family with their relocation process.

Where is this information stocked?

La Boutique Relocation is the sole owner of the collected information on the website hosted on Wix.com, on secured firewall servers. Information sent directly by the client or employer's HR is stored in our secured database.

Use of cookies:

La Boutique Relocation website and Wix use cookies that enable a smooth navigation on the website, as well as monitoring and analyzing its efficiency for safe use.

Who has access to your information?

Your information will not be shared to third parties without your consent. Once your consent is given, it will be used to help you in the relocation process (e.g. fill in housing application forms, etc.)

Privacy review:

The privacy policy will be regularly updated and takes effect immediately after its publication on the website.
